

Welcome to the WATERFRONT

The Holiday Inn Cape Town Waterfront welcomes its first guests – why not experience the warm hospitality for yourself?

The new R200 million, 546 room Holiday Inn CapeTown Waterfront recently opened its doors to welcome guests to the city's first full-service Holiday Inn and Africa's largest operating hotel.

Situated just 175 metres from Cape Town's major tourist attraction, the V&A Waterfront, the new hotel offers easy access to beaches and the city centre, making it an ideal base for both business travellers and holiday makers.

In keeping with this, the well-appointed rooms include 511 standard rooms, 27 Executive rooms and three suites. There are also five specially equipped rooms for handicapped guests and 50 per cent of all guest rooms are non-smoking rooms. Most rooms have mountain or sea views and all are fitted with the latest facilities including well-lit, spacious work areas, a computer data point, a cellular phone charging point and a sophisticated television entertainment system offering a selection of the latest movies.

In the hotel guests can choose between two restaurants or enjoy a drink at the lobby bar. There is also a fitness centre, swimming ► pool and curio shop, as well as meeting rooms for business guests and secure underground parking.

As befits an international, full-service hotel, the Holiday Inn Cape Town Waterfront offers a complete range of services. These include an innovative breakfast check-out service, which allows guests to take their time and enjoy breakfast, without having to rush to the check-out from the breakfast table.

Other services include room service, valet, a tourist desk, car hire and a free shuttle to the V&A Waterfront.

The next time you're in Cape Town, General Manager Barry van Coller and his team would like to welcome you to the new Holiday Inn Cape Town Waterfront.
